American Donkey and Mule Society at RBR

The American Donkey and Mule Society were so glad to be able to once again board their long ears at RBR and would like to thank the membership for their hospitality during their visit. The seven mules and one jack donkey enjoyed the warm southern California weather during their stay. RBR has boarded the American Donkey and Mule Society's animals at no charge for the Tournament of Roses Parade for over 10 years!

Equine Affaire 2007 at Pomona Fairplex

The 7th annual Equine Affaire in the West will be held at the Pomona Fairplex and will have something to offer to horse enthusiasts of all ages, all breed persuasions, all levels of expertise, and all equine disciplines. There are training clinics, seminars, demonstrations, a trade show and a breed pavilion featuring many different types of horses. This is a great event to take your family or friends to for a day of horsey fun! For more info. visit www.equineaffaire.com or call (740) 845-0085.

Pilates for Equestrians Class

RBR member and boarder Grete Gryzwana is teaching a Pilates class at RBR! Grete is an experienced dance performer, teacher and choreographer. In 1999, Grete received her Pilates training and certification from Joseph Pilates protégé, Romana Krysanowska. Since then, Grete has been an in demand Pilates trainer to celebrities, athletes, and performing artists. As lifelong equestrian, Grete understands the benefits of Pilates for riders and their horses.

Though this class is geared towards equestrians, anyone can benefit from the Pilates methods whether you ride or not! Classes take place on Mondays in the clubhouse from 6:15-7:15 pm for a cost of $145 for members and $162 for non-members. Call Grete at (818) 679-5162 to join!

Winter Western Schooling Show

On Sunday, January 21st, riders and their horses, adorned with silver and fringe, attended Rose Bowl Rider's first western show in many years! Classes included Pleasure, Equitation, Horsemanship, Halter, Showmanship and Trail for all ages and abilities. Judge Kathy Callahan-Smith of KCS Equestrian Center in Temecula complimented RBR on a lovely and well maintained facility. Thank you to our volunteers: Sue Lafferty, Fly Manglicmot, Nikki Wales, Tracy and Nick Faraci, Rebecca and Ashley Roberson, Shu Shu Moser, John and Greg Hedrick, Nicola White, Grete Gryzwana, Katie Ginzton and Sally Sandor. Thanks also to Julie from Julie's Mobile Tack for her generous raffle donations! Check out her tack store on Thursdays when she comes to RBR. Stay tuned for details regarding the Spring Hunter Schooling Show on March 18th with judge Regina Antonioli! Visit www.rosebowlriders.org for the latest!

Next Horsemanship 101 Class Coming Soon

Instructor Alexis Young is gearing up for the next City sponsored Horsemanship 101 class. The classes will again take place on Sunday afternoons from 1:00 – 3:00 pm and will run February 4th through 25th. Alexis is looking for safe, reliable horses to be used in the classes. Horses may be used for brushing, hoof-picking, haltering, leading, tacking up and other non-riding activities. If you think your horse would be a willing and patient candidate, call Alexis at (323) 478-0236.

Saddle Up for the Cheri Blue Ride

Friends of Cheri Gast, Kathleen Ungamrung and Ivy Murillo invite you to meet this Sunday, January 28th at the Loma Alta trailhead and staging area for a beautiful trail ride into the Angeles National Forest. The ride will start at 9:00 am and last for about 5-6 hours with a stop for lunch (please bring your own). Cost is $5 for non-ETI members. See you on the trail!
